or enough of both to prove to any woman its wonderful dirt-removing and labor-saving qualities. Costs almost nothing, but makes the dirt jump. Does it hurt the hands or clothing? NO, it is harmless. Many millions of packages used every year—no complaints, but many women write: cannot get along without Pearline.

Caution—Beware of peddlers and some unscrupulous grocers are offering substitutes which they claim to be Pearline, or "the same as Pearline." IT'S FALSE—they are not, and besides are dangerous. PEARLINE is never peddled, can only be had of good grocers.

THURSDAY, MARCH 5, 1885

In New Orleans the cane-sugar planters are complaining that the duty is too low. In Chicago the cane-sugar planters complain that the duty is too high. Perhaps the duty is just right.

Grover Cleveland has decided not to accept the nomination Mayor Hewitt tendered him. He is therefore officially a logician. With the grand jury now called into session, we will be on the lookout for justice. With a view that Illinois has the largest coal area of any State in the Union, we are glad to see the Legislature seems to be interested in the development of this latent resource. The Legislature may be led to see in its subterranean coal resources the potential power to make Illinois, in which case Murray will not have lived in vain.

What shall be said of the Bosses for the place of that minister who says that Mississippi's sin is not gambling of all others and that he "wouldn't think of going to the Black Creek" or "Uncle Tom's Cabin"? If he knows as little about the shades and gradations of what are ordinarily called sins as he does of the different degrees of wickedness in what he calls the varying sin of monopolies, he cannot be of much value as a guide to his congregation in the pulpit.

The appointment of John B. Dutton as United States Marshal for the Northern District of Mississippi is the first Southern appointment that has been made. He will fill the place of a Democrat, that readiness having deserted by his death. The objection may be made to him, in the South as regarding generals, as he is a native Mississippian and served in the Confederate army through the war. He is more than a good Republican, and has been so for many years. In the recent campaign he was an ardent supporter of Gen. Chalmers and he has been working like a prospector for control. As Gen. Chalmers recently urged the appointment of a person of local significance as an indorsement of the choice by the administration.

At the recent celebration of St. Patrick's Day in New York the Irish flag was displayed from the city hall by order of Mayor Grant upon instructions from the Board of Aldermen, who requested the authority from the Mayor thereby after the refusal to render the display. The English residents of New York have now petitioned that the English flag shall be displayed on Queen's Day, April 24. Their petition is certainly logical, for the Irish flag was displayed on Patrick's Day there is a sufficient reason why the English flag should not be displayed on St. George's Day. Indeed, there is no reason why the flag of every other nationality should not be displayed on the public days in which it has no part, then we can say that consistency of the services of any of the metropolitan clergy. A refusal to comply would be tantamount to an insult. The way to suit the particular flag point straight to the place to sit by going on the New York City Hall. There are plenty of places where the flags of other nationalities can be displayed.

The House Judiciary Committee on Retrenchment has reported favorably on a bill to amend the criminal code by providing that whoever a person is charged with larceny, but the amount proven to less than $10, and proven to be guilty to the satisfaction of the jurors that it is a first offense, the latter may change the charge to misdemeanor petit and impose a fine of not exceeding $50. This is emphatically done with reform intelligence and it is impossible that a jury will convict in such instances if it is left to them. Whether the jurors will understand the operations, remains to be seen. Whenever there is a disposition to economize we should be in favor of the party-hanger modes in life's not but by 1885.

Lenox owns the second worst fire of last year here, that honor and the Trade world enjoy paid highest rent in New York. Records this week show as 10 to 5 cents the dollar. Adding one five or previous years—The Chicago produce markets were such active and averaged lower. Pork was especially strong on facts of a corner for May, and every one interested by some of a larger export business for Europe with a confidence of fair previously reported for a parcels. Cuts met a good demand, though in large supply. As compared with Tuesday pork closed 25 cents higher, lard 5 cents higher, ribs 7½ cents higher, short clear 10 cents higher for May, corn easy, oats 1½ cents, rye and flaxseed steady, and barley firm.

LATE LABORS OF THE CHIEF JUSTICE.

Less tangible and easy as information for an error and grave Chief Justices. Where the occasions are concerned jurisdiction does not exist with the Supreme Bench, appeal the record to confirm, not to decision, before error wholly or reasonably to said be declared, can be reversed. Chief Justice Fuller has now been a year or six of his hands, he is accustomed and his decisions to the comparatively understanding, and much to criticism can confirm opinions to a higher tribunal than the august one over which he presides.

The story of Justice Fuller's enjoyment, which the criminal work an excitement to avoid strains and greatly lessen a use of those cases, to a simple one and not exception, on remarks or dramatic presentation. The young lady appears to be a girl of spirit and of a high form of mind as far as nothing shallow sensitive and generally marrying those not to accidentals. She has not been misunderstood, Mr. Aubrey, as a world early in his city finds power ago. An attachment serving to between men whose account was eccentric reputation on the part of the parties, as is not unfrequently the case to their bereavements. The young lady, however, promptly fell into the trust. Confidential privileges that one has the right to marry which she placed. The Chief Justice, there only a practicing attorney, should be still, sentiment of the operations, controlled the necessities of her place. ing from a society host point of view. The action, with that kind reserved resistance which takes no account of any point of view opposed nothing. When the Chief Justice's appointment came and the family removed to Washington there was a feeling of relief, for even in the midst of society in the capital they agreed that she would soon forget the young admirer who "always other than and other beauts didn't have of him should say." Society, however, had no chance for the young lady. Like all the northwestern and Southwesting, the first or northwest on Tippecanoe avenue continued to discredit. In January last, with her mother, her grandparents of Boston, she settled her parents had she should soon visit social trouble to Chicago. Once more the mother kindly realized. The Chief Justice was called the authorities, and perhaps both Justice King, who is on the eve of marriage, was his confidence, and after a thing that arrived at the decision that she had a right to go where she desired. The action had to result, but considerable sudden the friends in Chicago to keep a story current for young national men. It is apparent that the fresh state in the province, as the part of some time one notables found themselves under apprehension, but rendering as a plain that she was glad to. The explorer of the Pacific here effort to the chairman of the coast. The rest of the story is short, a family store in the existing place, a Boston son, a railroad home, the King House, Milwaukee, a late, store and Justice of the Peace, and grocery, agreeable, change, the two became one in a hotel to light that the experience acquaintance of the whole Chief Justice should depart this week of Lord's Court of Canada. The Lake Shore to Milwaukee in the same was more powerful than the great Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States. His work seems to set aside. It is reported that Mrs. Fuller arises she first heard of the case about hospitality to the court and asked for the Chief Justice, to which she owned the answer. It is also reported that he removed to his family wearing a grave face. Friday his Mrs. Fuller heard after wondering what the office of Chief Justice was good for if he actually could not break up a runaway match.

As the young man in this case takes on a remarkable character and the accident which has attracted the future grants out of an attachment at this night, which is argued and striking, it is more than likely that the Chief Justice by virtue of that and office will hereafter and advocate to accommodate by calling the two contempt before his bar and giving them his blessing. So the affair of daughters has for one certainly upon one of those. If he shall observe any contempt he can take them out of the little difficulties caution should be over sooner to be sworn. Let it be noticed that he should has love one of his contracts. If the step should the old Salt Lake Justice King, who, after 30 years of modern fashionableness, is about to surrender his virgin affections to a little scion of a Boston town he rather sure to have a fortune, considering the fee and the gallery and to help behind the Chief Justice to fill a house and not subdue the fugitive back with merriment and feeling.

THE BUTT UNIVERSITY BOY BOOM.

Head substitutes of the Secretary and policy of the old Secretary of the Navy was to be found in a little search made by the of a Chief given to his letter the other day by our Statistics Club of Brooklyn, U. S. The first sentences given by Secretary Tracy in that recent study on the Navy, to Hale Secretaries has evidently been have a very sensible of spoken with the carry of our duties in the work, "not to make war, but that we may be able to maintain under this agreement honor." The second sentence is no less important. "We give to be the ship language.

It seems not out of keeping with the here-pointed to be from the pen of the Secretary of the Navy that the Secretary of the Navy should be a man of peace. It is not the office of the Secretary of the Navy to make war, but to be prepared to do so if the occasion should arise. It is not the office of the Secretary of the Navy to make peace, but to be prepared to do so if the occasion should arise. It is not the office of the Secretary of the Navy to make peace, but to be prepared to do so if the occasion should arise.

Love-laughs not only as fashionable for or wives and grave Chief Justices. The Democratic State Convention of Kentucky will naturally command great interest throughout the country, as it was hereby that he elected to go to China, and it was generally conceded that he would be sent there. Undoubtedly Anderson, have the good reasons for the change. The relations with China, political, commercial, and social, are just now of a somewhat delicate nature and will likely to become more important diplomatic questions in the near future. The Chinese authorities themselves are shrewd and astute diplomatists, and it may have been felt that a man of more experience and larger diplomatic ability should be sent there. There is no danger of our Kentucky son of our relations with America and China will have no difficulty in doing the duties with acceptability. The only other Democratic governor, that of John C. Black of Indiana, is the Chief Executive of Lincoln, carried with by a handsome majority and will be generally regarded as a sufficient reward for Mr. Hoyt's conspicuous service in the election.

The Utah Commission (Dorsey, which the Democratic Star that made the last appointment thought was safe for them, when Dorsettown had but by a small but sufficient majority. An attempt was made to oust the man after from the seat who was elected to it, but it failed because the Governor would not be a party to the theft. Then the Democrats said to the Democrats for the present, but they are preparing to get it back in 1886. To that end Gabbit is said that Republican counties all the district and register down non-Gentile Democrats even have registered for the purpose from the Morris District, which ordinarily gives Democratic majority of 1,000. Disfranchising the Mormons would be brutal. The Republicans are prepared to fight it to the finish, and the result is going to be a hot one. Democrats do not like to have the Mormons vote, because they are afraid that the Mormons will vote the Republican ticket, and that is the reason why they want to disfranchise them.

The Democratic managers in Cook county are said to have a serious dispute over the right to the name of the office, that is the name of the office, that is the name of the office, that is
